PROFILE

My name is Hoang Anh Tu and I am 25 years old. I am a passionate and highly motivated Mobile Developer with a strong background in React Native. With extensive experience in building cross-platform applications, I specialize in developing high-performance, scalable, and user-friendly mobile apps.

EXPERIENCE

05/2023 - Present

Binh Tan, HCM

Fresher Mobile Development

Thien Long Group Corporation

- Since joining the company in 2023, I have been actively involved in maintaining, upgrading, and developing the company's mobile applications. My work focuses on ensuring smooth functionality, enhancing user experience, and keeping the applications up to date with the latest technologies.
- I have gained strong expertise in building responsive user interfaces, ensuring seamless adaptability across different devices and screen sizes.
- A key part of my role involves optimizing application performance, refining code structures, and developing reusable components while minimizing dependency on external libraries. This approach enhances efficiency, maintainability, and overall system performance.
- Through my work, I strive to deliver high-quality, scalable, and efficient solutions that align with the company's objectives.
